Are you growing older but not up? Feel like shooting six holes in your freezer by November? Still trying to reason with hurricane season? Got a bartender ear and a beachcomber style?
If any of these describe you, we've got the club for you.

The Chesapeake Parrot Head Club (CPHC) is a group of fun-loving, sun-loving people in the Chesapeake Bay area dedicated to sharing their love of life, performing community service, and having fun! If being a Parrot Head means more to you than just attending Jimmy Buffett concerts, membership in the CPHC is for you! Plus, you'll get news and information about Jimmy Buffett and the Coral Reefers, concerts, club activities and area Parrot Head flocking in the club's newsletter, the Chesapeake Telegraph.

You can join as a single or family, and offer business memberships to area businesses that are Parrot Head friendly.

WE ARE THE PEOPLE OUR PARENTS WARNED US ABOUT!

The Chesapeake Parrot Head Club and its parent organization, Parrot Heads in Paradise, Inc. are non-profit organizations whose purposes are to assist in community and environmental concerns and to provide a variety of social activities for Parrot Heads with similar interests. In other words, we party with a purpose.

The CPHC offers a wide range of community service activities and type of memberships to fit your needs and calendars. Among the activities are participation in and support for:

- the Chesapeake Bay Foundation
- Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA)
  - Ronald McDonald House
- School Supplies for Needy Children
  - Adopt-A-Highway
- Relay for Life, American Cancer Society

The CPHC also holds monthly happy hours and other social events at various locations in Anne Arundel, Baltimore and other areas.

For more information about the club, please contact the club president, Kathy Graves at 410-437-0989 or millielite2@msn.com or visit the club web page at www.chesapeakephc.org.
